DEACON JOE JOHN WILSON, SR.

It is with sadness that we record the passing of our dear brother in Christ, Joe John Wilson, Sr., who departed this life September 2, 1954. He was born October 14, 1895, in Thomas County, near Boston, Georgia, the son of the late W. Henry and Hattie Stanaland Wilson.

In his early manhood, about 1916, Brother Wilson joined the Primitive Baptist Church at Boston, Georgia, then under the pastoral care of the late Elder J. Marshall Thomas, where he was ordained a deacon. He moved to Atlanta and on December 20, 1925, placed his Church letter with the Atlanta Primitive Church, then under the pastoral care of Elder Virgil F. Agan. At the time of his death, he was senior deacon of this Church.

On August 16, 1927, Brother Wilson was married to Jamie Agnes DeVane of Jennings, Florida, who survives him. To this union was born two sons, Joe John, Jr., and Loren Henry, who are leaders in all our Church activities

Brother Wilson was a sufferer for many years; in his affliction he learned much self-control and patience. His fatherly admonition at all times was to avoid hasty words; his main thoughts were constantly to keep peace among the brethren, to promote good human relationships in the home, Church and community, to get along with people. He was a peacemaker.

Many are the compliments that have been passed on to our deceased member, Brother in Christ and friend, as a kind, upright, sincere and noble Christian character; perhaps no other statement declares more accurately and sincerely the truth regarding him than the oft repeated expression that he lived more closely to his Lord than most of us and as close to him as anyone we had known.

Elders Virgil F. Agan and Charles C. Carrin conducted funeral services September 4, 1954, at the Atlanta Primitive Baptist Church. Interment was in the Decatur Cemetery.

Resolved that one copy of this memorial shall be entered into the Church record, one sent to the family and one to the Banner-Herald for publication.

Sisters Lonnie A, Warnock and Roger A. Sims; Brother Charles E. Scott and Elder Virgil F. Agan.
Committee.

DEACON MICHAEL EASON EVERETT

Forasmuch as God our Father, has taken from our midst and our services our brother and deacon, Michael Eason Everett, Sr. we prepare this resolution.

After an illness of more than a year, Brother Everett passed away October 10, 1958, at the age of 66. He had been a member more than seventeen years. His dignified, experienced and unselfish manner promoted good will, wisdom, consecration and good business management in our church organization. Having served a useful life in business positions as Clerk of the Court in Candler County in his young Manhood, then several years at Dublin with the Credit Production Corporation and Federal Land Bank, followed by his removal to Atlanta in 1939 as Manger and later as Regional Director of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation gave him a wide experience in business and in financial management, His wise counsel had guided us through the years and into our present Church building program, giving satisfaction and promoting understanding and unity among his Brethren.

We wish to acknowledge the goodness and blessing of Almighty God in granting to us the acquaintance and the blessing of his membership and service with us through many years. Among his brother Deacons, he left a pattern of proper conduct of church business, of consideration of all concerned and of wise conclusions. As Chairman of our Board of Deacons, all committees appointed to carry on other activities of the church sought his counsel. Even in his deep affliction, right up to the last, as Chairman on our Building Committee, he was interested each day to know the progress of our construction. His life and service with us was such that he departed in the highest esteem of his fellow members.

Brother Everett leaves three brothers and three sisters; his wife, Sister Marie, who is a member with us; one son, Mike E. Everett, Jr., of Atlanta; one daughter, Mrs. Mary Jeanne Blackburn of DeLand, Florida; one grandson and granddaughter. His passing preceded by five days the birth of another little granddaughter.

We acknowledge the kind Providences of Almighty God in all His dealings with us and we wish to be submissive to this sorrow and loss with our humble petition that God will enable us to continue the work before us.

May the rich blessing of God rest and abide upon Sister Marie and all the relatives who mourn his going.

The Atlanta Primitive Baptist Church in conference adopted the foregoing Memorial this 20th day of November 1958.

Sister Gertrude Hicks chairman, Sister Loraine Z. Warnock, and Elder Virgil F. Agan

SISTER JULIE CANNON

All the days of her church life she went busily about her Master's house doing whatever she could. The deep love and devotion she had for Him and her Church were constantly reflected in her handiwork.

She loved flowers and her gift of bringing our depth of their beauty and glorifying God bespoke of her meaningful and close relationship with Him. so that when He called her home on December 26, 1970, she did not die--only her body died and her spirit now dwells with Him in that most beautiful Celestial Home where she is at peace and rests with Him forevermore. The services she rendered so unassumingly for her God. Church and for the enjoyment of her Brothers and Sisters in Christ will live on as an inspiration to those who loved and respected her so much.

Sister Julia Williams Cannon was born of Jessie Williams and Zada Horne Williams on November 21, 1890. Yatesville, Upson County, Georgia.

She first joined Ramah Primitive Baptist Church in her younger days, later moving her membership to the Atlanta Primitive Baptist Church.

In 1916 she was married to Fred L. Cannon, Sr.

Funeral Services were held at the Atlanta Primitive Baptist Church. with Elders Charles C. Carrin and Virgil F. Agan officiating. Burial was in Crest Lawn Cemetery.

One son survives her. Fred L. Cannon, Jr., and his wife. Vickie, two grandchildren Julie Ann and David Nelson Cannon and one brother, Guy Williams.

SISTER JEANETTE HENDRIX

1900 - 1970

The Church was saddened when Sister Jeanette Hendrix passed away at a local hospital on February 2, 1970. She was born in Savannah, Georgia on October 13, 1900, and the daughter of John Chester Hindrix and Catherine Jeanette Morgan.

After the death of her father, when she was very young, her mother married Mr. L. A. Warnock of Brooklet, Georgia. Here with her sisters and brothers she enjoyed a happy girlhood with the children of this marriage. It was during this time that she joined the Brooklet Primitive Baptist Church.

On June 2, 1931, she was married in Miami, Florida, to Mr. Vernon J. Hendrix, Sr. To them was born Vernon J. Hendrix Jr. in 1932. Her husband died when Vernon Jr., was 18 and she returned to Atlanta, Georgia, for residence with her Sister and shortly there after united with the Atlanta Primitive Baptist Church.

Her quite but unwavering devotion to her family and Church has been an example for all of us and she will be greatly missed. She will be particularly missed by her large and loving family, the immediate members of which are: her son and daughter-in-law, Dr., and Mrs. Vernon J. Hendrix, Jr., Grandchildren, Vernon J. Hendrix III, and Laura Marie Hendrix, her sisters, Mrs. Mamie Ramsey, and Mrs. J. P. Clair, Mrs. W. M. Townley, Mrs. Fletcher Kirkland; her brother, Mr. Walter Morgan and Step Mother, Mrs. Loraine Warnock.

Approved in conference of the Atlanta Primitive Baptist Church, March 15, 1970. Committee

DEACON ROGER ALLEN SIMS

Our Church was grieved on November 17, 1958 by the sudden passing of our beloved Brother and Deacon. Roger Allen Sims. He was born May 12, 1894 at Concord, Georgia, and is the son of the late Sallie E, Franklin of Alabama and George Franklin Sims of Greenville, Georgia.

On December 27, 1919 he was married to Miss Alma May Dewberry, daughter of the late Doctor and Mrs. T. J. Dewberry of Macon Georgia. To this union were born three daughters, Eleanor, Jane and Hazel. Besides his wife the survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Eleanor Hoss, Dallas, Texas; Mrs. Jane Scott, Marietta, Georgia; six grandchildren; three sisters, miss Mable Sims, Mrs. J. O. Finklen' Mrs. H. T. Williams; two brothers, Frank G Sims and C. W. Sims.

Funeral services were conducted at Springhill Funeral Home in Atlanta by his pastor Elder V. F. Agan, Elder P. O. Revels, Sr. and Elder W. A. Mullis. Interment was in Decatur Cemetery.

Brother Roger Lived a full life, having served in the National Guard on the Mexican Border and in France during World War I. He was a charter member of the Atlanta Primitive Baptist Church, coming by letter from Sharon Primitive Baptist Church. His life was one of faithful service to his fellowman as well as his Church, and we shall miss him very much.

The Church extends her deepest sympathy to his beloved wife and family and prays that God will sustain them with His Divine Presence.

Submitted in Love: Sister Enoch F. Hicks and Elder Virgil F. Agan
