Responsive Reading

(Pro 6:20-21; Is 66:13; Pro 31:25, 28, 26; 2 Tim 1:5; Pro 31:31; Ex 20:12)

My son, keep your father's command, and do not forsake the law of your mother. Bind them continually upon your heart; tie them around your neck.

As one whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you.

Strength and honor are her clothing. Her children rise up and call her blessed. She opens her mouth with wisdom, and on her tongue is the law of kindness.

I call to remembrance the genuine faith that is in you, which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am persuaded is in you also.

Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her own works praise her in the gates.

Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long upon the land which the Lord your God is giving you.

A week of tributes to Mom

To celebrate the special woman in your life, use a quote a day to honor her with tributes for a week. Write one of these (or one of your own) on a card, make a message into a placemat, tape one to the bathroom mirror — get creative! Every day of the week is a good day to celebrate her love and show her yours.

“There is no way to be a perfect mother, and a million ways to be a good one.” —Jill Churchill

“The art of mothering is to teach the art of living to children.” —Elaine Heffner

“An ounce of mother is worth a ton of priest.” —
Spanish proverb

“When your mother asks, ‘Do you want a piece of advice?’ it’s a mere formality. It doesn’t matter if you answer yes or no. You’re going to get it anyway.” —
Erma Bombeck

“The mother’s heart is the child’s schoolroom.” —
Henry Ward Beecher

“Mother love is the fuel that enables a normal human being to do the impossible.” —Marion C. Garretty

“Being a mother is learning about strengths you didn’t know you had.” —Linda Wooten
